Turning Memories into Memoir
PW005

Hours:    In Class 8                    Clinical 0                    Total 8

Description

Truth is stranger than fiction. That's why the contemporary memoir has become so popular. Your story, whether inspirational, funny, or tear-jerking, is worth sharing and might just be passed down for generations to come.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify different types of memoirs including coming of age, relationships, career, travel, and overcoming adversity.
2. Outline the 'plot' of his or her memoir.
3. Create a character profile of a real person.

Teaching Philosophy

We believe that instructors, staff, and administrators have a shared responsibility to provide: 1) innovative course design and instruction; 2) a safe, learner-centered environment; and 3) an authentic learning experience.

Student Responsibilities

To ensure a quality and safe learning environment, students are required to follow the Post-Secondary Student Behavior policy #560. This policy can be found at www.mntc.edu/board-policies. Printed copies are available upon request.
