

Delivering Instruction via Webinar

tt201

---

TEXTBOOK:

PREREQUISITE: none

---

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Tight schedules and even tighter budgets demand new ways to deliver training. The use of webinars can be a highly effective method of communication and training when planned and executed properly. This session will address:

- What webinar presentation techniques will help improve attentiveness and retention
- How to conduct an online collaborative meeting or focus group

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to

1. Demonstrate the ability to interact with the GoToWebinar tool
2. Identify voice techniques such as pacing, tone, and inflection that are important for webinar presentations
3. Discuss appropriate methods for evaluating student learning in a webinar training environment
4. Discuss visual cues that can be used in a webinar environment to support learning
5. Demonstrate effective webinar presentation skills
6. Appraise the webinar presentation skills of a peer

METHOD OF EVALUATION (FOR STUDENTS)

Successful completion of this course will be determined by:

- attendance
- attentiveness (as observed by instructor)
- active participation in classroom activities (as observed by instructor)
- successful presentation of a simulated webinar to be reviewed by peers